

PETER WILSON, 21, defender, South Coast United and NSW. Built up a strong reputation with his club and was included in the Australian squad that went to Vietnam this year. Over six feet tall, he is brilliant in the air and very fast. Was seen in Melbourne this year when NSW played against Victoria at Middle Park.

MANFRED SCHAEFER, 26, defender, St. George. The "iron man" of Australian soccer, Schaefer has the build of a weightlifter and is a fearsome opponent for any forward. Born in Germany, he is one of the first selections for any Australian team and was a key man in the 1967, 1968 and 1969 teams that played in Asia, against Japan and in the World Cup qualifying matches.

SANDY IRVINE, 21, defender, joined Juventus (Vic) early last year and after only one State appearance, was capped for the Friendship Cup tournament in Saigon. A product of the Aberdeen East End juniors, in Scotland, Irvine is a powerful, aggressive defender who likes to come upfield with fast, solo runs.

GEORGE BLUES, 29, striker, A.P.I.A. Leichhardt. Blues, regarded as Sydney's top player, last week won the Rothman's Gold Medal, awarded on referees' votes. Blues had success in his native Scotland and South Africa before coming to Australia. A long clearance delay almost made him quit soccer but the clearance came and Australia gained a star.

JOHN PERIN, 23, linkman, Juventus and S.A. Was an outstanding success with the Australian under 23 side that went to Noumea in 1967 and was a member of Australia's World Cup squad last year. A product of the S.A. juniors, Perin was swamped with offers from Sydney when he returned from four last year but no-one can afford the price.

JIMMY MACKAY, 26, linkman, often rated the best player in Victoria and the best linkman in the country. A Scot, Mackay plays for Croatia and is a tireless worker, constantly moving from defence to attack, where he is as dangerous as any striker. First capped for the Friendship Cup tournament this year.

JACK REILLY, 26, goalkeeper, plays for Juventus (Vic.) and is recognised as the best keeper in Australia. A Scot, he played for Hibernians before joining Washington Whips in the U.S. as a full-time professional. Among forwards who have been lucky enough to score against him is the immortal Pele, whose club Santos played a friendly match against the Whips.

SQUAD IS YOUNG AND VERSATILE

JOHN WARREN, 26, linkman, St. George Budapest. Warren who captained the Australian team during its World Cup bid last year and who is likely to again be chosen captain, has been one of Australia's greats since he made his debut with Canterbury Marickville at the age of 15. St. George paid a huge sum for his transfer, but he has justified every penny. Warren was also a member of Australia's 1965 World Cup squad.

BILLY VOJTEK, 25, striker, the most elegant forward in Melbourne and probably the fastest. Vojtek has already made 31 international appearances. One of the most closely marked men in Melbourne, Vojtek joined Croatia in 1962 from Essendon juniors. Started his international career in 1967, when he was chosen for Australia's Asian tour.

ADRIAN ALSTON, 21, striker, St. George and NSW. Represented Australia during the World Cup matches last year and this season established himself as a lethal forward and made himself an automatic selection for the national squad. Finished third on the NSW goalscoring list behind Ray Baartz and Mike Denton. Very elusive and has a strong shot with both feet.

National coach Zvonimir Rasic and his assistant Les Scheinflug have succeeded in picking a squad made up mainly of young players who will be groomed for the 1974 World Cup.

Rasic said this week, "I will base our games on the youngsters in the squad, who are being groomed for 1974."

"It will be a long trip and the young players will have more endurance."

"Also, when you analyse each player, you find they are all very versatile and can play in most positions."

"These players have been selected because they will fit into the same pattern of play that Melbourne and Victoria uses. We will base our games on overlapping and playing from behind."

The average age of the squad is 24 and five players will be making their international debut.

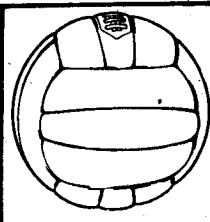

They are John Roche 21, (Marconi-Fairfield), Colin Curran 22, (Northern NSW), Mike Denton 25, (St. George Budapest), Dave Keddie 25, (Hakoah, Sydney) and John Doyle 23, (South Sydney).

Four Victorians are in the squad. They are Juventus goalkeeper Jack Reilly 26, Juventus stopper Sandy Irvine 21, Croatia striker Billy Vojtek 25 and Croatia linkman Jimmy Mackay 27.

South Australia is represented by Polonia goalkeeper Roger Romanowicz 22 and Juventus linkman John Perin 23.

The backbone of the squad comprises ex-

Other veterans, Ray Baartz, John Marnoch and Atilla Abonyi were not available for selection because of business commitments.

John Watkiss, will not go because he wants to stay with his wife, who is expecting a baby.

MIKE DENTON, 25, striker, St. George, and NSW. Finished the League season with 21 goals and has the priceless gift of being able to think a split second faster than anybody else. He doesn't look like a good footballer, yet he scores goals and that's what counts. His first cap but has represented NSW.

Metropolitan round-up — with George Yelland

TROUBLE AS HEELBERG MOUNTS

Tension mounted to such a point in Metro's dynamic finishing burst, that self control of some players and spectators slipped and the I. & D. Committee was faced with a heavy programme last night.

Following an incident in Box Hill's goalmouth, Makedonia fans invaded the pitch at Preston.

Box Hill refused to carry on until police arrived.

Referee Sarto waited five minutes for Box Hill to resume, but with no police appearing in that time, Box Hill would not carry on and he abandoned the game.

Two players received marching orders at Green Gully, one at Deer Park and one at Baywater.

Referees were kept busy with book and whistle at several other vital, needle games.

It is satisfying and encouraging to report that other games vitally affecting promotion and relegation were fought out in true sporting spirit.

Divisions two and three are real cliff hangers, with Yallourn champions of second division and Oakleigh Athletics to drop into third and Clayton to drop into fourth, the only positions decided.

Saturday's meetings at Coburg and Brighton, where Frankston and Maribyrnong Triestina are the respective visitors, could decide who is to accompany Yallourn to division one and Athena to division three.

They are bound to be torrid affairs with every player going flat out for victory.

Should Coburg win, they will go up. A draw could make it a three way proposition, as Albion Rovers could come into calculation.

Should Frankston win, they must still defeat Brighton who are fighting for survival.

Triestina visits Dendy Street in a battle which should settle the relegation position.

Should either side lose, there is still another game each which could alter the position.

However, if Brighton win, they must be favourites to stay in division two because of a much superior goal average.

Mooroolbark hung on for a valuable point at Deer Park. They are a point ahead of Western Suburbs with the same number of games left.

They are four points behind Fernree Gully but have three games in hand. Mooroolbark must be a fight favourite to go up.

The position is still very obscure and any two of the three can still make it.

At the other end, Croydron have completed their fixtures and finished with 18 points. Park Rangers on 17 points, have three games left and should avoid the drop.

East Melbourne Helvetic on 17 points, with a better chance to play, appear to have a better chance of survival than Baywater on 16 points and only one game to go, but they entertain Western Suburbs on Saturday and are unlikely to get anything out of the encounter.

Here again, it seems that the following week's final League games will decide the issue.

In division four, it now appears certain that North Carlton Olympic will play Corio for the championship, but both clubs will figure in division three next season.

Division one appears to be settled. Although by no means certain at this stage, Box Hill appear likely champions.

Following their victory over Dandenong, Prahran appear to be the second seed and it is a virtual certainty that St. Albans will accompany Richmond into Division Two.

The position is fascinating and exciting. It proves once again, if proof be necessary, that promotion and relegation are the life blood of the game.

Any move to abolish it would be small minded and suicidal.

It could only emanate from the minds of people obsessed with misdirected club interest to the exclusion of the overall good of soccer.

The Preston Makedonia, Box Hill game came to a premature end when spectators invaded the field and the visitors refused to continue until police arrived.

After waiting several minutes, referee Sarto ordered Box Hill to resume. When they refused to start until police were brought, the referee abandoned the match with the score sheet blank.

Albion's visit to Richmond was a one sided affair.

The appalling condition of the playing was a great leveller as far as goal scoring was concerned and half-time arrived without any goals.

Star goalkeeper, Ian Roberts, played his 100th game for Albion and was made captain for the day.

Winning the toss, he elected to play uphill.

Albion dominated but finished weakly as a great leveller as far as goal scoring was concerned and half-time arrived without any goals.

Because of an infringement, the referee ordered it to be taken again with the same result. This time the score stood.

It wasn't one of Albion's best performances but they fully merited the points. Jim Bayliah, Stuart Culbuck, Billy Savage and Ray King were their best performers.

Frahran did themselves a good turn when they defeated Dandenong by the only goal of the game.

The visitors had only themselves to blame for defeat.

They seemed too conscious of how much hung on the result, tried almost too hard and obviously lacked the right temperament for the occasion.

For the first ten minutes it was all Dandenong.

Peter Lowen headed a ball down, following a corner, but Mike

Hall couldn't control the bounce and failed to get a shot in.

Again Lowen went through and passed a beauty to Brian Holcombe who shot wildly over the top.

The all important goal came in the fourteenth minute.

A Prahran forward raced down the right wing and cut in, unchecked, to score from twelve yards.

This spurred the home side on, and Dandenong became even wider and more desperate.

Holcombe and Lowen both missed opportunities they would normally take.

Goalkeeper Scheel was in top form for Prahran and magnificently saved four great efforts from Lowen and others.

After last week's thrashing of Ringwood Box Hill, it was Sunshine City's turn to be on the receiving end.

They held Kellor for 45 minutes and turned round on level terms but things went wrong for them in the second half and Kellor gave them a lesson in snapping up goal scoring opportunities.

Sunshine took the lead after 30 minutes when a cut back from Billy Doctor was handled in the area. Kazi Pietrowski scored from the spot but the lead was short lived.

Two minutes later, Eddie Kupcz collected a pass from Secepaniak and broke through to level the scores.

Four goals in 12 minutes in the second half settled the issue.

First, Kaz Klein converted a pass from John Grady, followed, five minutes later, by the best goal of the match.

Bob Kupcz passed to George Nierobiz on the 18 yard line.

He hit it first time and the ball screamed into the net.

Another five minutes and Kaz Klein scored again when he headed home a good cross from Eddie Kupcz.

Two minutes later Eddie Kupcz took a fine through ball from Joe Menary to make it 5-1.

The last fifteen minutes were quiet as Kellor were content to sit on their laurels and a thoroughly demoralised Sunshine had ceased to challenge.

Herbert Seenan went off injured and they finished the game with ten men.

Earlier, Finlay Fraser had replaced Manny Spiteri, who had not recovered from the previous week's heroic effort for Victoria's under 16 team in Adelaide.

Mickey Bannagan, Billy Doctor and Herbert Seenan were best for Sunshine with Bob Kupcz and Joe Menary outstanding for Kellor.

A great game at Springvale, where Elwood Austria at their brilliant best, produced seven goals.

Elwood were two up in ten minutes. Barry Webb cut in and shot for goal. The ball was over the line as Pat Flynn made a desperate but unsuccessful attempt to hook it out.

Barry Webb was in dazzling form, and again proved himself to be one of the finest right wingers in Metropolitan circles.

Using his amazing speed, he flashed down the wing, cut in and slammed home a terrific cross shot to make it 0-2.

Springvale stood and fought back. At the 25 minute mark, Peter Conti, with a great solo effort, outstripped the defence and beat Frank Petersen with a hard, low shot.

Petersen appeared rather slow in going down for the ball which passed under him.

Three minutes before the interval, Hans Schnepp completely missed the ball as he attempted to clear an Alan McKinley free kick.

Conti was on hand to score his second. The see-saw battle continued after half time.

Barry Webb completed his hat trick where he used his speed to intercept a pass back to Petersen.

When Petersen took more than four steps with the ball, Paul Rubens took a back header from McKinley's free kick to level once more.

Three minutes from time, Hans Schnepp put a wide ball to John Webb who's centre was headed in by Barry Webb to make his individual tally four goals for the match.

Peter Conti had a great game for Springvale whilst Kevin Walsh and the Webb brothers were outstanding for Austria.

The reserves game was a grand spectacle.

A Franz Gross goal won it for Austria, but their star was goalkeeper Geoff Hamilton.

Springvale officials were delighted with the display of new signing, from Mauritius, Jean Loulier, 17 years old but with the natural ability of a future star.

Yallourn extended their run to seventeen games without defeat when they overcame a stubborn challenge from Ajax at Green Gully. Early exchanges were even and Brian Anderson shot wide when well placed.

In the 7th minute, Ajax shocked Yallourn when they broke through to score.

There was little in it up to half time, but Green Gully turned round a goal up.

A superior move ended with Linton Plummer smashing in a Roy Aspinworth cross to level matters after 55 minutes.

Ten minutes later, Gully were reduced to ten men when Tony Caesar was ordered off after being booked a minute earlier.

In the 73rd minute, Joss Adrichien slid a great ball through for Roy Aspinworth to smack in the winner.

Only two minutes remained when Green Gully were reduced to nine men as Vella, also, was sent for an early shower.

Yallourn had to fight every step of the way but never lost their composure.

Brighton had problems before their important encounter with Albion Rovers. Ludi Pawlik had to withdraw at the last minute through sickness.

Jimmy Molloy was out with a leg injury and David Thorne failed to put in an appearance.

David King and Joe McLean played an hour with the reserves and then turned out for the first team.

Seventeen-years-old Nicky Starzowski was also brought in for a full game.

Brighton were lively enough in the first half but the old falling in front of goal kept them scoreless.

Three minutes before the interval, Albion took the lead when John Stuart netted a good drive.

Brighton looked tired in the second half and were woeful.

Albion took full command and went further ahead when Jimmy Melrose beat the centre half and noddled the ball over the goalkeeper and into the net.

Tommy Cree completed the scoring when he went down the wing, cut in along the goal line and cracked it home from an impossible angle.

Alan Stevenson's brother, John, arrived the previous Monday to join Albion. He should add strength to this workmanlike and sporting club.

Jimmy Munro, Billy Cree, John Stuart and Jimmy Melrose were top class performers in fine team football.

Jim Kapitais, Ian McCall, Dave King, David Breen and Nicky Starzowski were best for a rather disappointing Brighton.

They will need to show more determination and accuracy in finishing if they are to win next week's do or die encounter with Triestina.

Following an even first half in which neither side scored, Coburg's forwards, at last, ran into top gear and they scored four goals to win soundly against Maribyrnong Triestina at Moonee Ponds.

Davey Wilson nearly broke the cross bar with a penalty kick just before the interval, but the ball was cleared.

Five minutes after half time, George Malcolm chased a loose ball, Mario Saffioti fumbled and Malcolm hit it to score.

Ten minutes later, Bobby Malcolm scored one of the finest goals seen in Melbourne this season.

He ran on to a high corner kick from Roy Yearseley and hit it with his head from well out.

The ball whizzed soundly against the ball flashed into the net like a bullet.

Shabnam Watson made it 0-3 when he headed another beauty from Cec Yearseley's cross.

Nine minutes from time, Roy Yearseley met a punched clearance with his head and number four was on the board.

Two other fine efforts were kicked off the line as Coburg's goal hungry forwards stormed into attack. This was Coburg's attack in championship form.

Best players were George Malcolm, Roy Yearseley, and Bobby Malcolm.

The goalkeeper stood helplessly as Coburg's attack was steady as a fort and never really in trouble.

The defence, including Eddie Sacco were Triestina's best players.

Frankston celebrated their first game on enclosed premises by thrashing Oakleigh Athens at Seaford.

Although winning by a six goal margin, much of their early play was tentative and crowded.

A good move in the fifteenth minute produced the only goal of the first half.

David Morgan headed a long through ball, high over the defence for Keith Lawson to smash into the net.

Frankston settled down but the forwards were indecisive.

They never produced the form of the previous week and surrendered a valuable point.

After 15 minutes, Doug Salt and Derek Rudge interchanged a field for Doug Salt to score from 16 yards.

Helvetic came straight back to equalise in the next minute as Martin Koeman ran out to meet the forward.

Keeping up the pressure Helvetic went into the lead with an attack down the left wing which drew Telford away from the middle, creating a gap which allowed a Helvetic forward to head a great goal.

Croydon got on top in the second half but Helvetic were dangerous in breakaways.

Desperate attempts to score were made by John Luyten, Brian

on Saturday at Cole Reserve. Pascoe Vasek

Baywater made a big attempt to keep their third division status when downing Park Rangers 3-0.

Rangers shot into attack from the kick off and forced two corners, but Baywater fought back to hit the cross bar in the 15th minute.

Six minutes later, Dennis Ruesscott punched a Rudi Oosting corner out but Arthur Barnett shot for goal.

A defender cleared off the line, Brian Wardle miskicked and Barnett fastened on to the ball to shoot Baywater into the lead.

Dennis Ruesscott, restored to his goalkeeper position, did a great job.

He turned back masterly efforts by Arthur Barnett, Bill Masterson and that brilliant, up and coming 15-year-old Eric Bell.

Arthur Barnett got the ball in the net after 61 minutes but it was not allowed because of a previous infringement.

In the last six minutes, Baywater breached the game with two good goals.

Brian Wardle passed to Rudi Oosting and Matthew Vandenlaak headed in his accurate centre.

Two minutes from time, Rangers outstanding player, Bobby Whitelock, handled in the penalty area and Bill Masterson made it 3-0 from the spot.

Rangers played the last hour with only ten men.

Neil Robertson was sent off, following an incident involving Masterson. It was a good team effort by Baywater, who were without Stan Wardle, Dave Jones and Phil Dunning.

The game was a fair result. Arthur Barnett and Rudi Oosting served them well. Only Bobby Whitelock and Dennis Ruesscott headed in for Park Rangers.

A welcome visitor to the game was Rangers player George Rowlands who was allowed out of the Broadmeadows for the week end. He returned Sunday night for further treatment. Rangers hope to have him fit for next season.

The Park Rangers presentation dinner date will be held at the Alford Club, 18 Queens Road, S. Kilda on Friday, October 2 from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. $7 a double, $4 a single. Reservations may be made to the treasurer, Mr. Jimmy Roseburgh evenings on 62-5887 before Monday, September 28, 1970.

A fast, exciting game at Deer Park between Western Suburbs and Mooroolbark ended in a one all draw.

George Maykousis took a long through ball, beat two defenders and scored the goal.

Western Suburbs a stern defensive battle, yet remained entertaining.

With 12 minutes to go, a corner by Alan Irving was headed on by John Orr for John Howard to volley the equaliser.

Two minutes later, Maykousis was ordered off after a clash with John Orr.

The game ended with honors even and a draw - a fair result.

Jimmy Kondilis and Demetrios Kypritidis were great workers in a sound all round team effort by Western Suburbs.

John Howard was outstanding for Mooroolbark, well backed up by Dave Richardson and Ron Ryan.

Croydon completed their fixtures when they entertained East Melbourne Helvetic last Saturday.

They never produced the form of the previous week and surrendered a valuable point.

After 15 minutes, Doug Salt and Derek Rudge interchanged a field for Doug Salt to score from 16 yards.

Helvetic came straight back to equalise in the next minute as Martin Koeman ran out to meet the forward.

Keeping up the pressure Helvetic went into the lead with an attack down the left wing which drew Telford away from the middle, creating a gap which allowed a Helvetic forward to head a great goal.

Croydon got on top in the second half but Helvetic were dangerous in breakaways.

Desperate attempts to score were made by John Luyten, Brian

Moss and Jim Telford before Doug Salt freed home the equaliser with only two minutes left.

Dave Kent, Doug Salt and Jim Telford starred in Croydon's tremendous second half effort.

Chelsea and Heidelberg fought a ding dong battle at Edithvale Reserve which ended all square.

The only goals were scored from the penalty spot, one to Heidelberg in the first half and one to Chelsea in the second.

Vic Finlay equalised with his spot kick after 70 minutes.

Donald Clark, Heidelberg's top scorer for the season, made his tally twelve when he put the visitors ahead twenty minutes after the start.

A Ray Serace, coach of Heidelberg, started at centre forward for the reserves but has started in goal with the first this year.

Johnnie Cox, a popular and effective player with Chelsea for the last two seasons, flew back to Wales yesterday.

In his last match, he scored two goals in Chelsea's 3-2 victory over Heidelberg Reserves.

Heidelberg will be running a seven-a-side competition at the beginning of February. The matches will be played at Hawker Street and, it is hoped, St. James Reserve.

Interested clubs should contact Heidelberg secretary, Neil Love, 14 Clarendon Street, East Brunswick.

South Yarra, weakened by the absence of regular half backs Roland Brown and Alf Stark were overhauled by University.

University contributed to their defeat by giving several goals away with sloppy defensive work. University's two first half goals were scored by Roland Brown.

First Lou De Marchi's pass back was intercepted and a goal resulted, then Jerry Hallam cleared one back over his keepers head and into the net.

South Yarra showed spirit for ten minutes in the second half but University came back and scored four more against a demoralised defence.

South Yarra will hold their end of season dance on Saturday, September 26, at the St. Francis Xavier Hall, Donald Street, Prahran, from 7.30 p.m. to midnight.

Supper and bar facilities are provided, all are welcome and tickets are $1.50 each.

Eltham narrowly defeated Mooroolbark 2-1.

They had chances galore to increase the margin but finished badly.

Greg Scepaniak opened Eltham's account with a header from Mike Hands' centre from the left wing. A defensive lapse allowed Newport to equalise before half time.

Eltham were on top after the interval but Newport broke away and took the lead.

A penalty kick by Mick Lester levelled the game and a diving header by John Lee put the home side in front.

Mick Lester had another penalty kick but this time, shot wide.

Alan Rains, John Lee, Greg Scepaniak and Bill Clemsey were best for the visitors.

John Howard was outstanding for Mooroolbark, well backed up by Dave Richardson and Ron Ryan.

Croydon completed their fixtures when they entertained East Melbourne Helvetic last Saturday.

They never produced the form of the previous week and surrendered a valuable point.

After 15 minutes, Doug Salt and Derek Rudge interchanged a field for Doug Salt to score from 16 yards.

Helvetic came straight back to equalise in the next minute as Martin Koeman ran out to meet the forward.

Polonia's Mike Olinowski, one of Victoria's nominees for the national squad and one of the form players of 1970, speaks about soccer on TV....

TV A TONIC FOR SOCCER

I hope that GTV9's first two State League telecasts have silenced the critics of TV soccer.

Channel Nine has done a great job so far and the VSF must do everything in its power to keep the channel interested next year.

The critics have been arguing that soccer will keep away the crowds. Naturally many people will stay home initially because of curiosity, but so what? How much smaller can our crowds get? They're at rock bottom now.

TV will get more people interested in the game because viewers - even Australians - will have a look just to see what it's like.

If they like what they see - and that's up to the teams - they may even go to a match.

Many Australians I know regularly watch the replays of British matches and they enjoy them.

It has been proved that TV coverage of sporting events eventually increases the crowds.

Look at trotting and VFA football. Both were doing badly before TV stepped in and provided new life.

So it will be with soccer, if as I said before, the teams give their best and try to make the game attractive.

But above all, TV will put soccer into the public eye and will help establish it as a sport which can be played by anyone - not just Europeans.

Last week, Channel Nine presented some of the State's under 14's who did so well in interstate competition recently.

That was tremendous. The boys will strive much harder when they realise that such glamor is becoming part of the game. Also it will make many more boys interested in taking up soccer.

Overall, GTV9 is doing a great job and the ideas it has are sound.

Perhaps, to make the coverage even better, the station could next year introduce an award for the best player of the season, with votes given by different journalists.

Also, they might consider some sort of competitions for viewers, to create more interest among the public.

Another good idea would be to have a guest State League player sitting next to the commentators during each game, and being asked his opinion from time to time.

National squad named

Rasic always uses a sweeper behind his full backs, and this role is likely to go to Wilson, with Irvine acting as stopper in front of him.

My tip is that Schaefer, who has always acted as a centre back in previous international matches will be shifted to left back.

against New Caledonia and Tahiti.

On the following Monday, the party returns to Sydney and catches a connecting flight to Hong Kong, where a game against club side Jardine has been organised.

Mexico

Other games will be against Thailand in Bangkok, Iran in Teheran, Israel in Tel Aviv, Turkey in Istanbul, Greece in Athens and Salonika, Manchester City and another team in England and Mexico at the Aztec Stadium in Mexico City.

The squad will return on December 7.

Proposed matches in New Zealand have been rejected by the NZ Federation.

JOHN DOYLE, 24, linkman, South Sydney. Born in Ireland and made his mark in Newcastle with Adamstown Rosebuds before coming to Sydney early this year. Signed as a striker but proved very effective since being shifted to midfield. He has not represented Australia or N.S.W. but this tour should establish him as a regular international.

DENNIS YAAGER, 23, defender, Hakoah and NSW. Played for Australia for the first time in the Vietnam tournament earlier this year, and would have been a certain choice for last year's World Cup matches had it not been for a knee injury that required a cartilage operation. Joined Hakoah four years ago from Canterbury Marrickville following a couple of years as an apprentice professional with Everton in England.

DAVE KEDDIE, 25, striker, Hakoah and NSW. Took a while to prove his worth after coming from Scotland in 1967 but has become a dangerous striker, scoring 20 goals during the season.

JOHN ROCHE, 21, defender, Marconi-Fairfield. Australian-born, Roche has a sound soccer background. His father, John Roche senior, was a capable forward with North Shore and Gladesville-Ryde in NSW. John junior is recognised as one of Sydney's top prospects. This is the first time he has been capped.

COLIN CURRAN, 23, defender, Adamstown, Northern NSW. Australian-born, Curran had a great game against George Best when Northern NSW played against Manchester United in 1968. His performance won him an invitation from Matt Busby to come to England and join Manchester as an apprentice. Curran spent a year there and it has made him a star player.

RAY RICHARDS, 26, linkman, Marconi-Fairfield. Played as a goalkeeper in Queensland, then joined Hollandia where he became a striker. Marconi and assistant national coach Les Scheinflug shifted him to midfield this season and the move really paid off. Richards represented Australia in 1967, during the Asian tour. His versatility is evident in his background and he has international experience which will prove valuable during the long tour.

Soccer News says...

Close the gates

Two disturbances at State League matches last weekend highlights the need for more police at certain matches and for stern action by the VSF against clubs whose games regularly cause trouble.

During Saturday's Slavia v. Fitzroy match, spectators swarmed onto the pitch and tried to attack referee Pedlar, holding up the match for over five minutes.

There was also a disturbance at the George Cross v. Croatia match at Schintler Reserve on Sunday, when someone broke into the dressing rooms and tore the clothes of the referee and linesmen.

If clubs continue having trouble at their games, the VSF should make them play a few of their home matches behind closed doors.

With the resultant lack of income, the clubs would lose no time in trying to put their spectators back on the right track.

According to the laws of F.I.F.A. the home club is responsible for any disturbances that arise during the game.

If the V.S.F. observed this law we would not have as many disturbances.

But it is the clubs which must shoulder most of the blame, for not disciplining their players or officials and in many cases, for actually encouraging dissent.

Clubs should make it their business to guard against violence at games by keeping a tight check on the behavior of the players.

For in most cases, when the players take referees' decisions calmly, the crowd remains relatively calm as well.

Lions president not guilty

The State League Tribunal has found Lions president Roman Lazorko not guilty of charges made by Alistair Cook of the Sporting Globe.

The Tribunal did not sustain the charge that Lazorko had struck Cook during the Lions v. George Cross match at Montgomery Park and found "the whole incident of a trifling nature which does not warrant any further action."

HE'S TRAINING

Hakoah linkman Nigel Bridgeman has resumed training, after a cartilage operation, three weeks ago.

Bridgeman, who last year won Hakoah's best clubman award, will be available for the Ampol Cup series early next year.

BRANT DEFENDS ROSEBUD

Arthur Brant, president of luckless Rosebud, defends his club in a letter to Soccer News.

Since 1968, Rosebud has scored 43 goals and conceded 412. The club came last in Fourth Division in 1969 and second last in 1968.

This season it is again headed for the wooden spoon.

Mr. Brant explains some of the difficulties which have confronted Rosebud:

"The club was formed in 1951 and played social games before competing in the Southern Peninsula.

"At that time we had a team to be proud of, one which was equal to any First Division side of that period.

"But as players became older and began having more family responsibilities, we were forced to seek new talent.

"The committee approached the local State School and was invited to coach the youngsters to play soccer. This gave us some promising talent and when they reached High School age, we went to their new school and asked the headmaster if we could continue our work.

"He gave us his blessing but unfortunately the headmaster was an Aussie Rules fan and wouldn't allow soccer to be played.

"That started our bad run.

"We are in an area referred to as a twilight tourist resort, meaning one for retired people. It is a holiday town with no major industries and no efficient transport system to entice youngsters to come or stay here.

"At one stage, Balcombe Apprentice camp helped us out but they now play in the District League.

"Then there was the officer cadets school at Portsea, which asked us to play some of their soccer-minded cadets. Our hopes were high but students at the school come and go according to their period of study and are subject to army routine and their syllabus.

"The last intake produced no players, whereas we lost six promising lads who completed their course.

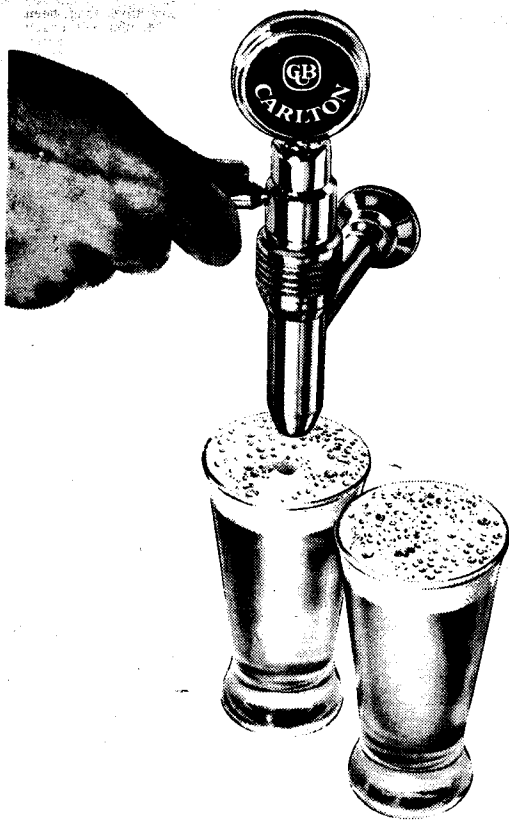

"Again we have started at the bottom, fostering six teams, including two junior sides. We have also started the game in the High School and the Technical School.

"This year many of our players have had to play in the reserves as well as the seniors, owing to the army having its commitments and not being able to give us players.

"But we are planning to have a paid player-coach next season plus an intake of future players from the Western Port industrial area.

"I might add we have our own ground, dressing rooms, referee's room, kiosk, good toilets and no cricket pitch to contend with.

"As cash becomes available, the Council will fence the ground and floodlighting is planned for next year."

Soccer on the house

Courage Breweries last week 'shouted' St. Albans an evening of international soccer.

Courage sent Mr. John Bragg to the club's ground at Churchill Reserve, to show films of top matches to the players and officials.

Slavia wins, Juventus 1, Footscray 2

Slavia 1, Fitzroy 0

(Steele, 74)

Great defensive play by Tony Zanatta and Mike O'Hara allowed Slavia to weather the Fitzroy storm in the first half and paved the way for Russell Steele's winning goal from a free kick.

The kick was cleverly taken. George Train dummied, Steele took over and blasted through the well into the top of the net. It was Slavia's first win for the season and the club was counting on the points to lift it from last place.

But Lions beat Hakoah at Middle Park, so the position remains the same, with Slavia the leading candidate for relegation.

Fitzroy dominated the first half but could not pass Zanatta and O'Hara.

Fitzroy's best shot during this period came from Nick Rakovalis. The ball curved in mid-air and O'Hara just managed to tap it onto his own cross-bar.

Fitzroy was much more flexible, transferring defence into attack in the blink of an eye.

When Slavia won the ball in defence, there was always a vast expanse ahead, with only one or two men to go through.

Fitzroy full back Taki Xanthopoulos was in attack most of the time and his dangerous crosses were the main feature of Fitzroy's dominance.

Towards the end of the first half, Slavia became more composed and set up a few good offensives along the right flank.

Jimmy Paul in midfield suddenly had space in which to move and when he burst into play, Slavia looked good.

The second half was a dull, midfield struggle which rarely resulted in shots at goal.

Steele scored and when Jimmy Mangopoulos was legitimately tackled in the penalty area, the crowd went wild, invading the pitch on both sides (see story page 3).

Valtsanis tried to get at referee Pedlar, and was sent off. During the commotion, Xanthopoulos tried to restore order in his usual "tactful" way.

Slavia: O'Hara; Shelden, Jones, Zanatta, Lazarovic, Paul (inj. sub. Dastey, 79), Kemplay, Schleicher; Adlam, Steele, G. Train. Coach Ken Kontra.

Fitzroy: Vassilakakis; Valtsanis (sent off, 80); Xanthopoulos, Kiriari, Selfe (inj. sub. Papasgrigoriou 32), Bilgouras; Karapatsos, Mangopoulos, Rakovalis. Coach Manny Poulakatis.

Votes: Slavia: 3. Zanatta, 2. Paul, 1. O'Hara. Fitzroy: 3. Xanthopoulos, 2. Selfe, 1. Bilgouras.

Dragan Utjesenovic

Geo. Cross 1, Croatia 2

(Smart (GC) pen. 25, Williams pen. 54, Mackay 78)

George Cross battled on with 10 men after Joe Makin had been sent off in the 13th minute yet despite the handicap, the home team pushed Croatia to the limit and would have clinched a draw had it not been for the irrepressible Jimmy Mackay who scored 12 minutes from the end.

Mackay played as striker alongside Billy Vojtek and although he performed well, his absence from midfield was noticeable. It was in midfield that Cross gained most advantage. Kevin Walker maintained his good form of previous weeks, and silver-haired Neil Morson gave him valuable support.

This gave Jimmy Smart a lot of work and he was consequently the team's best player.

Croatia found more space in the second half, when George Cross decided to defend its 1-0 lead.

In the 54th minute, hard Vojtek shot was handled in the penalty area and Brian Williams converted to level the scores.

Croatia continued attacking but Lou Kastner in goal and coach John Sanchez stood their ground well.

Yet even these two were left helpless by Mackay's 25-yard drive.

George Cross tried out 21-year-old reserve player Joe Chetcuti in attack and his first half indicated we may see more of him.

George Cross: Kastner; Makin (sent off 13); Ricks, Sanchez, McLachlan; Morson, Walker, Pryde, Chetcuti (sub. Fox second half), Smart, Epifano. Coach John Sanchez.

Croatia: Kovacek; Wixey, Gunn, Symington, Williams; McArthur, Rar, McIntyre, Vojtek, Mackay, Armour (sub. Rahjer, 55th). Coach Mike Kiss.

Votes: George Cross: 3. Smart, 2. Walker, 1. Sanchez. Croatia: 3. Mackay, 2. Williams, 1. McIntyre.

JOE MAJOR

Juventus 1, Footscray 2

(Buljevic, pen. 14, B. Thomson (J) 50, Lukic 54)

A brilliant midfield display by Dragan Utjesenovic gave Footscray a well-earned victory over State League leader Juventus, which now has a lead of only two points over second-placed Melbourne.

The mighty full back, playing only his second game as linkman, set up camp on the right flank - the territory he has - and methodically constructed Footscray's game.

Utjesenovic was well-supported by Tommy Stanovic, who always found the open spaces, and by Frank Micic, although he wasn't having one of his best days.

As Utjesenovic kept slamming the ball goalwards, Slobodan Zoraja began to get the better of Juventus defenders.

He and to a lesser extent, Branko Buljevic, more than atoned for their utter failure against George Kinnell during the first Juventus v. Footscray clash which Juventus won 3-0.

Footscray took the lead when referee Yelland awarded a penalty, apparently because Pat Della Rocca had pushed Buljevic.

The decision was hotly disputed but Footscray would have won even without the goal.

Buljevic and Zoraja missed easy chances and Micic hit the bar.

Alistair Sandison and Gareth Salisbury also missed easy chances but Footscray's overall play was much better than that of Juventus.

George Kinnell was nowhere near his best and most of the defensive work fell on the shoulders of Sully Irvine and Jack Reilly.

Sandison, the star of recent matches, started brilliantly but as the game wore on, Geoff Evans got the better of him.

Sensing the game slipping away, Juventus coach Tony Boggi brought on Tommy McColl for Bernie Docherty at half time but the move had little impact.

Juventus: Reilly, Della Rocca, Kinnell, Irvine, Healey, Salisbury, Docherty (sub. McColl half time), Goodwin, Frost, B. Thomson, Sandison. Coach Tony Boggi.

Footscray: Milisavljevic; Evans, Rice, Cirkovic, Ruzmir; Utjesenovic, Micic, Stanovic, Zoraja, Lukic, Buljevic, Coach Cedo Cirkovic.

Votes: Juventus: 3. Reilly, 2. Irvine, 1. B. Thomson. Footscray: 3. Utjesenovic, 2. Zoraja, 1. Milisavljevic.

Pygall has 33 votes and O'Neill 32. Lions' Ian McCarthy polled only one vote on Saturday and now trails with 30 points.

Top contenders for the Mariboro goalscoring award are Slobodan Zoraja of Footscray and Mike

Clarey of Hakoah, who each have scored 13 goals.

Polonia 1,

(Pygall 17,
Plaskota (P) 32,
Spiekermann
73, Pye 84)

Ringwood City
clawed its way back into the running for the final four by comfortably disposing of a depleted
Polonia in a game that always thrilled.

Dave Pygall had unusually opened the scoring with a corner by Alan Villers, but the pleasure of the Ringwood fans faded as Polonia fought back.

Nick van Egmond pulled off the save of the day from David Closs and seconds later took another fast cross right off the forehead of Henry Siwka who looked artificially dangerous.

Young Robert Bailey gave an excellent display, keeping Cez Plaskota on an ight rein and almost laying him out of the game, almost, but not quite.

After 32 minutes,
Plaskota, towards midfield and racing through a gap a mile wide, scored the qualifier with a powerful trive.

Kaz Kowalec and Edek Vidara were starring for Polonia as the home team truggled to keep in touch
ut as Wim Spiekermann, Pygall and Pye took ontrol, Ringwood established a superiority hat was soon rewarded by he goals that counted.

Spiekermann climbed into ouble figures with his nth goal of the season and ut before the final whistle like Pye put the result eyond doubt and celebrated his return after nine game enforced lay-ff with an opportunistic oal after a bad miss by George Wiegosz in the Polonia goal.

Polonia: Wiegosz; Konopka,

Hakoah 1,
Lions 2

(Murney 73,
Clarey (H) 77, Napadowski 83)

End of season games tend to be less exciting and interesting than earlier efforts but there was little excuse for the inept display given by Hakoah at Middle Park, last Saturday.

Lions took a big step towards safety when they won this match.

They deserved victory because they stuck to their task, fought harder for the ball and showed a desperate desire to win.

Hakoah, with plenty of first half scoring opportunities, were lethargic and inaccurate.

Hugh Murney was Lion's chief architect of victory.
He set most of their attacks into motion and frequently opened the way to goal with defence splitting passes.

Ricky van Zeist moved out to the wing on many occasions and crossed some very good balls.

Lions' win was all the more meritorious because they had only 10 effective players for the last 20 minutes.

In the very first minute,
Joe Keenan came on for Frydlewicz, who twisted an ankle.

In the second half, Steve Collinson pulled a muscle and hobbled, a complete passenger, for the remainder of the game.

Neither side had an effective link man.

Ian McCarthy, for Lions,
was the most industrious midfield player, without ever becoming his usual dominating self.

Tommy Rosewair again
marshalled his defence well and Alex Tochel was very sound in goal. Eddy Butler made several disconcerting runs and his footwork troubled Hakoah's defence.

John O'Neill stood out as the only professional looking player in Hakoah's team. He positioned well but did not kick as accurately as he can.

Keith Fry looked dangerous in the first half,
but Portwood, Clarey, Robertson and Cameron were sadly off target.

Smith replaced
Robertson in the second half, but without the drive of Alan Stenhouse, Hakoah never produced the form which downed Ringwood
the previous week.

Hakoah: Henderson, Douglas,
Baker, Panther, O'Neill, Anderson,
Fry, Portwood, Clarey, Robertson,
(sub. Smith half time), Cameron.
Coach Jim Adam.

Lions: Tochel, Murray, Collinson, McGuinness, Rosewair, McCarthy,
Napadowski, Murney, Van Zeist, Frydlewicz, (sub. Keenan, 1st min.),
Butler. Coach Stan Plekan.

Votes:
Hakoah: 3. O'Neill, 2. Henderson,
1. Fry.
Lions: 3. Murney, 2. Rosewair, 1.

Fabian Juhasz

Melbourne 2,
Sth. Melb. 0

(Rogers 48, Pocock 61)

Melbourne took command in the second half to down
a lively South
Melbourne by two clear goals, at Middle Park on Sunday.

Ian Marshall was in tremendous form.

He and Fabian Juhasz of Melbourne were the outstanding personalities of this encounter.

Time after time, Marshall came through with dazzling footwork, setting up scoring chances which were frittered away.

Juhasz played the sweeper role to perfection.
He was cool and reliable under pressure and his distribution was immaculate.

Ray Pocock had a quiet first half but fired after the interval.

He had a strong hand in both goals, profiting each time from astute passes by Keri.

Johnny McDaid, Jozsef Szabo, Billy McGowan and Alistair Scott gave terrific support to Juhasz and Carmichael was safe in goal.

Melbourne's young forward stars, Johnny Wallace and Billy Rogers were great in the second half.

Wallace is an intelligent player with plenty of soccer knowhow. With a little more physical strength he would be another Jimmy McKay.

David High and Alan Rutherford were tenacious backs for Hellas.

Gould was South
Melbourne's liveliest forward and goals should have come from some of his well judged centres.

In a foolish piece of retaliation when he was accidentally kicked by Keri, Jimmy Armstrong was sent off by referee
Stafrace in the second half.

Melbourne: Carmichael, (sub.
Odri 74), McDaid, Juhasz, Szabo, McGowan, Scott, Keri, Wallace, Pocock, Rogers, Blesany (sub.
Dobbing 40), Coach Zvonimir Rasic.

South Melbourne: Stephens, High,
Rutherford, Bedford, Walker,

Armstrong, Gorrie, Gould. Coach
Vic Janczyk.

GEORGE YELLAND

Can Juventus fight back?

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Juventus, which lost 1-2 to Footscray last week, must beat Ringwood City at Jubilee Park in a televised match on Sunday, to retain its lead on the State League ladder.

Juventus is only two points ahead of Melbourne, which could climb to the top by virtue of goal average.

But of course,
Melbourne has to beat the powerful Croatia to cause
Juventus any headache.

Ringwood has gained more stability since the return of star utility player Mike Pye last week and has the potential to beat Juventus
if the League leaders play
the way they did against Footscray.

But Juventus has often followed poor games with great performances and could win easily if it recaptures its best form.

The loss of injured players Bobby Thoson, Keith Webster and Keith
Lakey has forced coach
Tony Boggi to make a number of positional changes which have weakened the team.

Ringwood has great scoring power in Wim Spiekermann, Alan
Villers and Terry
Lockhurst.

But the game will be decided in midfield, so a lot of responsibility will rest with star linkman Dave Pygall.

If he wrests territorial advantage from Gareth
Salisbury and Jack Gowdin, the game could swing Ringwood's way.

Last year Ringwood had the premiership sewn up until about five matches from the end of the season, when the team suddenly went to pieces.

Juventus must have learned from Ringwood's misfortune and will do everything in its power to recapture its best form.

The question of whether last week's defeat had a demoralising effect on the Juventus team will be answered at Jubilee Park on Sunday.

HAKOAH v.
POLONIA

(Middle Pk., Sat.)

How can you make out Hakoah? It beats top sides and then loses to Lions.

In addition, you can't keep track of the Hakoah players from one week to the next. The team changes all the time.

So I suppose it's fair to say that the result may depend upon which lineup takes the field.

Polonia, although losing consistently, is capable of much better things and looks to have good forwards again in Kaz Kowalec, Cez
Plaskota and Henry Siwka.

Backed by a defence which includes the great Mike Olinowski, plus big
Eddy Marmur, Marek
Konopka and Andrew Czapnik, these forwards should be able to snatch a narrow victory.

FOOTSCRAY v.
SLAVIA

(Schintler Res., Sat.)

Although Slavia's defence, led by Tony Zanatta and Mike
O'Hara, has become one of the toughest in the League, the mighty Footscray forwards should have little trouble in kicking a winning score.

Slobodan Zoraja and

Branko Buljevic are in good form and Slobodan Lukic has scored in successive weeks.

Dragan Utjesenovic,
who played like a champion against Juventus, should monopolise the midfield, where Slavia will miss Jimmy Paul, who was injured against Fitzroy last week.

CROATIA v.
MELBOURNE

(Olympic Pk., Sat.)

On paper this looks like a win to Melbourne, but don't be too sure.

Croatia has a great defence and match winners in Jimmy Mackay, Billy Vojtek and Brian Williams.

All they need is an ounce of luck and Croatia will win this match, leaving Melbourne
without a hope of clinching the premiership should Juventus drop two points.

Left back Williams is one of the most forceful players in Victorian soccer, defending grandly and bursting upfield to aid the forwards and even to score himself.

This is one man
Melbourne cannot find an answer to and he could swing the match should Mackay and Vojtek be too closely marked.

Melbourne has a fantastic striker in Ray Pocock but he'll find Williams hard to beat.

And Billy Rogers won't have a picnic against Hugh Gunn and Bobby Symington.

So Croatia's defence looks equal to the task. It remains to be seen whether its forwards can show the same enterprise.

FITZROY v.
GEORGE CROSS

(Olympic Pk., Sun.)

Fitzroy has lost the sparkle it showed early in the season.

Trouble on the field and in the club is reflecting on the team's performances and Jimmy Mangopoulos remains the only player with any knack for scoring goals.

George Cross, despite its loss to Croatia last week is a much improved side, with fine players in Kevin Walker, Jimmy
Smart, Lou Kastner, John
Pryde and John Sanchez.

The Fitzroy defence, which may be without
sweeper Babe Valtanis, who was sent off last week, looks incapable of holding these men to a losing score.

LIONS v.
STH. MELB.

(Montgomery Pk., Sun.)

Although all evidence points against it, this match could result in an upset.

Lions have long been South Melbourne's bogey team, and have beaten the Middle Park side on the most unlikely occasions.

Full of confidence following its victory over Hakoah last week and with Hugh Gunn in good form, Lions could take the points with a desperate effort.

South Melbourne's defence looks strong enough but its strikers are still finding it hard to find the net. It'll be even harder for them if Jimmy Armstrong, who was sent off last week, gets suspended by the Tribunal.

South Melbourne goalkeeper Dick Stephens receives the ball on his stomach as Melbourne's Ray Pocock charges in.

VISIT FROM ADELAIDE

The under 14's and under 16's of Adelaide club Malta United visited Melbourne at the weekend as guest of George Cross.
The visitors showed their strength by beating Broadmeadows under 14's 4-2 and George Cross 3-2.
The under 16's beat Broadmeadows 8-0 and drew 2-2 with George Cross during the curtain-raiser to the main match at Schintler Reserve on Sunday.

Cobram became worthy champions of the North East, when they completed their League fixtures, undefeated.

Their final game, at King Valley, appeared an easy one to finish with but it turned out a very near thing in a high scoring duel.

Only an odd goal separated the teams in a match that produced eleven.

Denilquin could not get to their ground because of flooding in the area and their games against Whorouly had to be cancelled.

In the seniors, each side took a point.

In the reserves, Denilquin had already indicated their inability to field a side and Whorouly collected both points on forfeit.

Whorouly haven't a junior side and Denilquin Juniors took both points in this division.

Milawa ended the season on a sour note.

With no hope of finishing in any of the final fives, they failed to turn up at Albion and forfeited all games.

This very unsporting action could have serious repercussions for Milawa.

A referee from Melbourne did the 400 miles round trip for nothing.

Milawa face possible expulsion from the League or at least a heavy fine.

Bad sportsmanship like this has no part in soccer.

Last season, Cobram scooped the honors pool but this year, they have been spread around in a manner which is good for the game.

In senior division, Cobram are outright champions.

Teams in the final four cup play off are Cobram, Myrtleford, Shepparton and Whorouly.

Myrtleford lifted the Reserves League championship.

With Cobram, Shepparton and Whorouly, they will contest the Reserves Cup play off.

In a tremendous finish in the Junior League, Wangaratta took the championship on goal average from Myrtleford.

These two, along with Cobram and Woodsway, will fight it out for the Junior Cup.
First semi-finals will take place at Milawa's ground next Sunday.

Melbourne caps perfect season

Melbourne's under 12's capped their undefeated season on Sunday by beating Elwood Austria 5-1 in the Cup final.

The game was played at Middle Park as curtain-raiser to the Melbourne v. South Melbourne match. Sharpshooter Duncan Cummings, who scored three goals, was once again the star of Melbourne.

If he stays with soccer and continues developing the way he has been, he will become a State League champion. And so will many of his team mates, as well as a few of the Elwood players.

Although Elwood was well beaten, it at least gained the distinction of scoring against the Melbourne defence, which has conceded only three goals this year.

The other two were scored by Croydon in a Cup quarter-final match, which Melbourne won 3-2 after extra time.

In League games, Melbourne conceded no goals, and scored over 150. Melbourne opened its account in the first minute of play on Sunday, when Cummings netted from close range.

Five minutes later, Lou Szantho came down the right wing to make it two.

Justin Butterfield who was baffling the defenders out on the left wing, sent a perfect through ball to Cummings in the 26th. minute and the ace striker made it 3-0.

Melbourne's famous forward line was well in command now, switching the ball from wing to wing and splitting the defence with quick passes.

But in a break-away move, Alan Lee beat the entire Melbourne defence plus goalkeeper Paul Hartley to bring the scores closer.

But the greater talent and fitness of Melbourne resulted in two second-half goals by Cummings and Szantho to give their side a well-deserved victory.

Most of the credit for the boys' success must go to coach George Buttas, who has moulded them into a team that is unbeatable in its age group.

Goal scorers - Melbourne: Cummings 3, Szantho 2. Best players - Melbourne: Cummings, Csaki, Frank Palinkas, Attila Szentandassy. Elwood: Ian Gavin, Alan Lee, Tony Briggs.

The teams:
MELBOURNE: Paul Hartley; Frank Palinkas, Jim Vider; Attila Szentandassy, John Erdelyi, Glenn Reilly; Lou Szantho, Duncan Cummings, Zolta Csaki, Carl Rainer, Justin Butterfield. Coach George Buttas.

ELWOOD AUSTRIA: Steve Gordon; Eddy Gillvic, Tommy Maricovic; Anje Tania, Tony Briggs, Steve Newton; Steward McDonald, Alan Lee, Ian Gavin, Henry Aichinkich, Freddy Beller. Coach Jimmy Gavin.

Bruce Roberts (right) and Tony Hamill were two of Victoria's stars in its under 14 carnival win in Sydney recently. Bruce was chosen for an under 14 Australian team after Victoria had won the carnival.

Croatia's under 17's completed the season on a high note when it won the Cup by defeating Juventus 4-1 at Olympic Park. It previously won the League, going through the season undefeated.

This stamp caused an uproar when it was issued by the United Arab Republic during the World Cup.

It was to carry the names of the 16 finalists. Israel was one of them, but apparently to the Arab government, Israel doesn't exist.

CLUB EXPELLED

Elsternwick has been expelled from the District League for fielding a player who had been suspended for life.

The District League Tribunal found that the player going under the name of Martin Dodo was really Martin Dodg, who received a life sentence while playing for the defunct Libertas.

Elsternwick has forfeited all its points and will need to re-apply for admission if it wishes to compete in District League next season.

The team had lost only one match and was in third place on the Western Division ladder. Former Footscray J.U.S.T. and Victoria star Vero Madenovic is one of the former greats who have appeared in the Elsternwick team.

ASF meets on Saturday

The Australian Soccer Federation will hold an executive meeting in Sydney on Saturday.

The meeting has been requested by the Victorian Soccer Federation, which originally suggested Melbourne as the venue.

The VSF wants to discuss Australia's proposed world tour and it is expected that it will push for the appointment of John Barclay as tour manager.

Barclay was manager during Australia's World Cup games last year.

Other matters that Victorian officials will bring forward are negotiations with Pools promoters, the proposed tour by the F.A. representative team next year, the proposed visit by Allan Wade, F.A. Director of Coaching, the committee of study into the future set-up of the A.S.F., the national coach position, and finance.
